SUN COUNTRY AIRLINES TAKES OFF WITH NEW SEASONAL SERVICE OFFERINGS

Sun Country expanding travel options this fall with extended and new seasonal routes out of the Midwest

MINNEAPOLIS. June 8, 2021 – Sun Country Airlines \(NASDAQ: SNCY\) today announced it will resume nonstop service from Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport (MSP) to Gulfport-Biloxi International Airport (GPT) and Louis Armstrong New Orleans International Airport (MSY) beginning this fall and extend its new service to Raleigh-Durham International Airport (RDU) into the fall.

As part of this seasonal expansion, Sun Country will offer additional flights to some of the Midwest's most sought-after vacation destinations including sunny destinations across Florida, Arizona, Mexico and more.

In addition, Sun Country plans to offer same-day round-trip travel between Green Bay Austin Straubel International Airport (GRB) and Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport on November 21, 2021 for fans who want to experience Green Bay take on Minnesota in the Twin Cities and round-trip travel from MSP to GRB on January 2 and 3, 2021 for those who want to cheer on Minnesota at Green Bay.

"This fall presents an opportunity for us to provide folks even more flexible and convenient travel options as they begin planning exciting weekend excursions and holiday vacations," said Brian Davis, Sun Country Airlines Chief Marketing Officer.

Sun Country Airlines currently operates a total of 96 routes across 71 airports in the United States, Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean.

Sun Country's customer experience includes free in-flight entertainment, complimentary non-alcoholic beverage service, a new mobile-friendly website with more self-service tools, and new interiors on each aircraft. Sun Country provides safe, reliable, hassle-free flights at affordable prices with warm and friendly service. Sun Country's mission is to connect guests to their favorite people and places, to create lifelong memories and transformative experiences.
