SUN COUNTRY AIRLINES ANNOUNCES NOW SELLING FLIGHTS THROUGH WINTER 2022.

Sun Country opens flights for sale through April 2022, more than 365 days in the future for the first time ever, to offer travelers the opportunity to rebook postponed spring break escapes.

MINNEAPOLIS. FEBRUARY 4, 2021 – Sun Country Airlines today announced the extension of the flight schedule of more than 50 routes, now selling through April 2022.

Sun Country Airlines recently announced 16 new routes and the addition of nine new airports. Sun Country customers now have access to more than 60 exciting vacation destinations, all at an ultra-low cost.

“We are committed to providing exceptional service and great value,” said Sun Country Airlines CEO, Jude Bricker. “We believe by extending our current schedule out to 2022, we’re able to provide customers the time and convenience they need to re-book any postponed travel or plan new trips to experience our many vacation destinations, at a time when they feel comfortable flying again.”

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, customers who wished to adjust their travel plans were issued vouchers for future travel. Travelers can ensure they don’t lose out on that vacation by booking new trips through April 2022 before their voucher value expires. Those who are rebooking canceled trips can take advantage of no change fees if they decide to postpone travel again 60 days or more prior to their travel date. These routes are available to book online now at suncountry.com.

In partnership with Landline, Sun Country Airlines also recently announced Landline Select and its expansion into five new Midwest cities across Minnesota and Wisconsin. The door-to-door private shuttle service offers travelers a seamless connection from their doorstep to any of Sun Country’s 63 destinations from five additional Midwest cities: Brainerd, Minn., Rochester, Minn., St. Cloud, Minn., La Crosse, Wis. And Eau Claire, Wis. Sun Country Airlines and Landline began service in Duluth, Minn. And Mankato, Minn. in 2019.
